

www.GLINLAW.com

301.987.0030

Glinsmann & Glinsmann, Chartered Immigration Lawyers

Glinsmann & Glinsmann, Chartered is a boutique immigration law firm dedicated to working with employers, employees and families to provide sound advice and representation in matters involving US immigration law.

The Firm is a resource for attorneys in representing foreign nationals with legal matters impacted by immigration law.

Free 30 Minute initial consultations offered.

Top Rated Lawyers. Both attorneys have independently achieved the highest possible peer and client ratings.

“AV” Peer Rating and Avvo “5/5 Superb”

Services:

- EB1 Extraordinary Ability
- EB2 Exceptional Ability
- EB3 Skilled Workers
- National Interest Waivers
- Portable Workers
- H1B Worker Visas
- A & G Diplomats
- F1 Students & J1 Trainees
- Complex Citizenship
- Family Petitions
- Hardship Waivers
- Special Immigrants
- Worksite Enforcement

12 Russell Avenue, Gaithersburg, Maryland 20877

Matthew Rice Glinsmann, Attorney at Law

Matthew Rice Glinsmann leads the Permanent Residence Practice Group at Glinsmann & Glinsmann, Chartered. His practice is focused exclusively on U.S. immigration, work site enforcement, nationality and consular issues.

Mr. Glinsmann is a past Chair of the American Immigration and Lawyers Association (AILA) Washington D.C. Chapter. He currently serves as Vice Chair of the national AILA committee for liaison with the USCIS National Benefits Center (NBC). Before serving the AILA DC Chapter as Chair, he served the Executive Committee for five years. He has participated in high level liaison and policy discussions with the heads of the US Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS) for the Maryland and Washington District Offices, as well as U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) State Workforce Agencies. He is often receives referrals from fellow immigration lawyers for the most difficult USCIS and DOL cases.

Mr. Glinsmann received his Juris Doctor from the University of Maryland, School of Law in 1994 and a Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Maryland in 1990. He is admitted to practice law in Maryland and the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland.

Mr. Glinsmann is a regular faculty member for the continuing legal education courses on the topic of Immigration for AILA and MICPEL. He has served on a panel of experts of Permanent Residence based on Labor Certification at AILA Annual Conferences.

Matthew Rice Glinsmann, Attorney

Maria Fuster Glinsmann, Attorney at Law

Maria Fuster Glinsmann is a principal in the law firm of Glinsmann & Glinsmann, Chartered. Ms. Glinsmann leads the Firm's Nonimmigrant Visa Practice. Her practice is focused exclusively on U.S. Immigration, citizenship and consular issues.

Ms. Glinsmann is an active member of AILA and the Bar Association of Montgomery County (BAMC) Maryland. She was awarded Outstanding Section Chair for her leadership of the Immigration Section (2000-2001).

She received her Juris Doctor degree from the Georgetown University Law Center, 1993 after graduating with a Bachelor of Science, cum laude, from the University of Maryland, College of Business Administration, 1990. She is admitted to practice law in Maryland and the District of Columbia. She is a member of the Supreme Court bar.

She has served on the faculty for the Law School for the Public (Maryland Public Television) on the topic of New Developments in Immigration. She is a regular faculty member for the continuing legal education courses on the topic of Immigration and Nationality Law for the ALI-ABA, American Legal Institute of the American Bar Association and AILA. Ms. Glinsmann is a co-author of the update on Ethics in business immigration representation for the 2008 and 2009 AILA Annual Conferences. In 2010 She co-authored a publication for lawyers on the A, G and NATO diplomatic visas.

Maria Fuster Glinsmann, Attorney